MAYOR FISHER IS SUSTAINED

Board of Aldermen Refuse to Concur in Action of Common Council.

VOTE FIVE TO THREE.

Council Will Not Pay Legal Expenses of Urban S. Lambert in His Appeal to Supreme Court.

The Board of Aldermen last night by a decisive vote refused to concur in the action of the lower board in declaring operative notwithstanding the Mayor's objections, a resolution appropriating $250 to defray the legal expenses of Urban S. Lambert, Councilman from the First Ward, in his appeal to the Supreme Court when his seat was contested in the Common Council, also a resolution appropriating $100 for the construction of a sewer at King street and the city limits.

Board of Aldermen.

The Mayor's veto message was sent to the Board of Aldermen at the last regular meeting, but that board deferred action until last night. The message was the first business considered.

Mr. Summers asked if the Aldermen were compelled to vote to sustain the Mayor's objections to both resolutins.

President Marbury at first thought this could be done, but subsequently ruled that it would be necessary to act upon both, as his honor had embraced the two resolutions in his message.

Messrs. Ballenger and Field said the vote should be upon both resolutions.

Mr. Hill subsequently said:

"Mr. President—I was prepared to vote to sustain the Mayor in his veto of this allowance of $250 at our last meeting, but Mr. Ogden asked for a postponement, and, as a courtesy, I cheerfully consented to the same. The Mayor gives his reasons for a veto. It makes no difference as to how much or how little it pleases or displeases. He uses sound words, or, at least, some ideas that I had urged in the committee, as the Chairman of the Finance Committee, (Mr. Field) will, no doubt, admit, namely, —The Corporation Attorney should have been consulted, and if such contests are started, the parties to it should either pay the bills or ask Council in advance. I consented to a report on the resolution against my will, as I had for months objected to it in committee. I voted for it also against my best judgment and will correct that evil by refusing to vote to pass it over the objections of the Mayor. Many years ago the late James Fossett and my father, the late John T. Hill, engaged in legal proceedings over the position of Collector of Taxes. Mr. Fossett paid his expenses and my father paid his, and I suppose Mr. Williams expects to pay his and the members of the Common Council who instituted the proceedings against Mr. Williams will have to pay theirs. Let Mr. Lambert and his friends pay this bill of $250, and then, perhaps, it will be realized that the City Council is composed of two branches, not one. If Council submits to this precedent, other litigation will follow, the parties to which will assume the city must bear their expenses. I hope the Mayor's objections will be sustained."

At the close of Mr. Hill's remarks the President said: "Shall the resolutions become operative notwithstanding the Mayor's objections?

The ayes and noes were called with the following results:

Ayes. Messrs. Ogden, Ballenger and Field—3. Noes, Messrs. Hill, Brill, Fitzgerald, Summers, and Mr. President—5.

An ordinance making it unlawful for any person to conduct a garage or shop for housing, or repairing bicycles, motorcycles or motorbicycles within three hundred feet of any church, was received from the Common Council.

Mr. Brill, could not see his way clear to vote for the ordinance, as it seemed to be legislating against one man—W. H. Heymel, who had been making arrangements to open a garage on the east side of Washington street, between King and Cameron.

Mr. Ballenger urged the board to adopt the ordinance.

Mr. Ogden was not prepared to vote on the bill.

After further interchange of opinion, on motion of Mr. Ogden the ordinance was laid upon the table.

A resolution calling for an appropriation of $3,500 for the purpose of purchasing the lot adjoining the ground recently acquired at Cameron and West streets upon which to erect a public school building was received from the Common Council.

Under the rules, it was laid over until next Saturday at 12 m., when another meeting of the Aldermen will be held.

The other business which came before the board was of a general nature, which will be found in the official proceedings.

Common Council.

The session of Common Council last night was attended by 14 members, Messrs. Sullivan and Bryan being absent.

On recommendation of the committee on light gas lamps were ordered placed in front of St. Paul Church and at the corner of Montgomery and Alfred streets.

The same committee was authorized to enter into a contract, to cover a period of three years, for the sale of ammonia from the gas works. $550 per year is to be received for for this ammonia.

Mr. Chauncey offered an ordinance providing that all horse drawn vehicles shall have a numbered tag displayed on the side, these numbers to be furnished by the city auditor on payment of one dollar, which was referred to the committee on general laws.

A letter was received from the George Washington Birthday Association asking a donation of $200 to assist in the entertainment of distinguished guests, and that the City Hall be decorated. The litter was signed by the secretary of the association, H. Noel Garner, and on motion of Mr. Brockett was referred to the Finance Committee.

A report was received from Fire Chief Gronau stating that the fire department is in urgent need of one thousand feet of hose. This communication was sent to the committee on Finance and Fire.

A petition asking for an arc light at the corner of Queen and Fayette streets, was presented by the Alexandria Laundry, Inc. It is stated that they had moved their plant to this location, and found this corner very dark and dangerous. This was sent to the committee on finance and light.

The Mutual Ice Company asked that the city supply cobble for a 200-foot roadway on Cameron sreet from Union to the river, the Mutual Ice Company agreeing to do all the work. This was referred to the committee on streets.

The chair appointed Mr. Williams a member of the committee to wait on the Legislature asking the passage of the act to give City Council control of the lot at the corner of Cameron and West streets for school purposes.

Mr. Williams called attention to the fact that the money had been appropriated for the purchase of the Black property, but no steps toward the purchase of the property had been taken. An examination of the ordinance showed a possibility of misunderstanding its terms, and Mr. Smith offered a resolution which was passed directing the Corporation Attorney to prepare a deed for the Black property and to examine the title, and directing the auditor to draw the warrant for the purchasing price when the deed properly signed is presented to him.

Mr. Brockett asked about a resolution offered by him some time ago requesting information as to the contract between the city and the Alexandria County Lighting Company. Mr. Harrison replied that there was some question as to the interpretation of this contract, and that the attorney for the lighting company had repeatedly promised to submit a statement covering his interpretation, but had up to this time failed to do so, and that the committee considered any action outside of the Courts extremely difficult without the co operation of the Alexandria County Lighting Company.

The only matter which caused any length of discussion was an ordinance providing that no garage be placed or maintained within 300 feet of any place of worship. Many of the members seemed to feel that this was aimed at one particular man, and one particular piece of property, and, as Mr. Chauncey put it, that the church was used merely as a cloak. Mr. Marshall and Mr. Spinks also spoke in opposition to the measure, and Mr. Smith, whose committee had reported the measure, explained it from the committee's standpoint.

On the roll call the measure was pased ayes, 10; Messrs. Burke, Leadbeater, Lambert, Smith, Graham, Monroe, Brockett, Harrison, Low and Brumback; noes, 4, Messrs. Spinks, Williams, Marshall and Chauncey.

SENATE PASSES WEAVER BILL

Both Houses of Legislature Act on Measure Making Rate Twenty Cents.

MAY SIGN ACT TODAY.

Carries Emergency Clause—Tax at Source is Eliminatated by the Measure Adopted.

(Special Dispatch to the Gazette.)

Richmond, Jan. 28.—The Weaver bank deposit tax bill fixing the rate at twenty cents on the hundred dollars passed the Senate by a unanimous vote shortly after that body convened today. The bill now goes to the Governor for his signature. The bill as passed is exactly as it came from the House.

The House of Delegates yesterday passed the bill by a recorded vote of 80 to 17.

The bill applies to money belonging to any citizen of Virginia, on deposit with any bank or corporation firm or person, or in the possession or under the control of the owner, whether it be in or out of this State. This provision, it is believed, coupled with the exceedingly low rate offered, will put a stop to any movement to withdraw money from banks over the taxing period—February 1. Virginia people can secure neither legal nor moral exemption from taxation at the low rate fixed in the bill by hoarding money out of the channels of trade, or by sending it to places of deposit outside of Virginia, as returns covering both of these points must be made to commissioners of the revenue under oath, and will be subject to review by special tax grand juries.

RACE RIOT IN MARYLAND.

Guns And Clubs Freely Used in Battle Between Whites and Blacks.

Salisbury, Md., Jan. 28.—Sheriff William Brady and his deputy, Ephraim Benson, were summoned to Delmar, on the Maryland and Delaware boundary, last night to quell a race riot.

The trouble is said to have arisen over the effort of the railroad men to find a negro, Howard Jackson, who is said to have attempted several days ago an assault upon Mrs. Geo. Green, the mother of a railroad man. Efforts to keep the attack quiet proved unsuccessful. A mob was formed to search for the alleged offender.

The homes of the negroes on the Maryland side of Delmar were visited and when the whites tried to enter the houses they were met with resistence. According to information received here a pitched battle ensued, in which a number of shots were fired and clubs and stones freely used. So far as is known no one was seriously hurt, but a number are said to have received cuts and bruises.

The negroes were driven from their homes and ordered to leave the town. It is said not a negro family in the town was left undisturbed.

Unable to control the mob and fearing bloodshed, the calmer among the whites telephoned to Sheriff Brady asking him to come armed. He hastily collected a number of deputies and left with them for the scene in three automobiles, heavily armed. Their arrival had a quieting effect upon the mob, and some of the negroes returned to their homes.

The officers remained on the scene over night to prevent a further outbreak, which was threatened.

FINANCIAL AID TO COLLEGE.

If Merger is Effected, $1,500,000 to $2,000,000 Will be Provided.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 28.—Within the past week conferences have been held in New York between representatives of the Medical College of Virginia, the University of Virginia, and the Carnegie and Rockefeller foundations, which have at their disposal immense sums for the advancement of medical education. Practical assurances were given that if the plan for amalgamation in this State is carried out, and a well equipped school with proper clinical advantages is located in Richmond and made a constitutional part of the State university, an endowment of from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000 will be provided.

Not less than $500,000 of that amount is to be expended in modern buildings to adequately house such an institution, with its laboratories and provisions for directing medical education in the whole territory from the Potomac river to Georgia. The institution will specialize not on medical research, as at John Hopkins, in Baltimore, but on modern sanitation and public heath and the training and equipment of men for combating diseases and directing the work of communities for better living conditions.

Trustees of the Medical College of Virginia laid the whole plan in its detail before the committee on Finance of the House of Delegates last night, in connection with requests for appropriations and maintenance. The Board of visitors of the University of Virginia will act on the matter this week, and if favorable action is taken, the two boards will jointly petition the General Assembly for the legislation necessary to merge the two institutions, both of which belong to the state.

Under the plan proposed, the trustees of the Medical College of Virginia are to resign, and the charter of that institution surrendered, its property worth over and above all indebtedness, $354,000, to be deeded absolutely to the University of Virginia, and the medical school to be operated in Richmond hereafter to be known as the medical department of the University of Virginia, and to be governed by the trustees and officers of that institution for the benefit of the State.

ROBBERS HOLD UP TRAIN.

Zanesville, Ohio, Jan. 28.—According to reports reaching here, four masked men held up passengers in a Pullman on a Baltimore and Ohio train, between Bellaire and Zanesville, early today. One of the men was captured, it is reported.

The four men are said to have boarded the train at Wheeling, Va. They waited until after the train had left Cambridge, Ohio, before proceeding to the rear Pullman, where they overpowered the brakeman and then awakened the passengers.

As they proceeded to relieve them of their money and valuables, one passenger is said to have resisted two of the robbers, and in an instant several others joined in the fight. Three of the hold up men leaped from the train, but the fourth was held.

ADVERSE REPORT ON ENABLING ACT

Senate Committee Amends it and Recommends That it Do Not Pass.

PROVIDES A BALLOT.

Amendments Give Voter Choice Between Local Option and State-Wide Prohibition at Special Election.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 28.—Within two hours after taking it up the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections yesterday afternoon, by a vote of six to five, reported the Williams enabling act with the recommendation that it do not pass. To the adverse recomemndation, the committee added several amendments, the most important of which requires the electorate to vote for State-wide prohibition or for local option, instead of for or against State wide prohibition, as is provided in the bill.

It was stated unofficially that the Senators voted as follows:

Ayes: Senators Holt, Massie, Hart, Parr, Montague, and Hobbs—6.

Noes: Senators Early, Edmonson, Mapp, Gayle and Moncure—5.

All of the amendments were introduced by Senator Early. In the bill as it came from the house it was provided that ballots used in the special election, which it was proposed to call to ascertain the will of the people, should be marked for "statewide prohibition" and "against statewide prohibition." The amended bill substitutes for the last a ballot marked, "for local option."

Another amendment requires that the election shall be held on June 14, 1914, instead of on the fourth Tuesday in the next ensuing month of September ,after one-fourth of the number of persons voting at the last regular November election shall petition the Governor to issue a writ for such special election.

The original bill provides that the qualification of voters at any election held under this act shall be such as are prescribed by voters for the general law. An amendment added by the committee makes an important qualification in this language:

"Provided, however, that only such persons as are duly qualified voters at the time of the approval of this act, and such persons as shall become of lawful age after the said date and shall thereafter register by reason of so becoming of lawful age prior to the date herein fixed for holding the said election, shall be eligible to vote at said election."

The insertion of this proviso was defended yesterday by person opposed to the enabling act on the ground that it would eliminate a possible artificial inflation of the vote for the express purpose of furthering the "dry" cause. Under the amendment only those could vote next June who are qualified to vote today, since the payment of poll tax for participation in any election is required to be made at least six months before the election in question is held.

To the clause in the original bill which exempts from the operation of the prohibitive law the sale of intoxicants for sacramental, scientific, medicinal and mechanical purposes, an amendment adopted by the committee adds:

"And except wine and its by-products which may be manufactured from grapes, berries and fruits by a person, firm or corporation now manufacturing wine in this State, provided that the wine or by-products so manufactured be sold only in packages of not less than two and a half gallons or one dozen bottles, and be delivered to a common carrier to be transported outside the state of Virginia."

Still another amendment provides that State-wide prohibition shall not go into effect until May 1, 1917. The original bill made the law effective on May 1 after the first regular session.

TELEGRAPH ROAD GRADE CROSSING

Court of Appeals to Review Order of Corporation Commission.

A DANGEROUS PLACE.

Tribunal Grants Writ of Error in Famous Case—New Questions Will be Presented During Review.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 28.—The Supreme Court decided yesterday to review the proceedings in the now famous Telegraph Road Crossing case in which the State Corporation Commission reversed its former ruling by exempting the county of Fairfax from sharing in the expense of eliminating the grade crossing at Telegraph Road, just outside of Alexandria. The case is styled the Commonwealth of Virginia, at the relation of the State Corporation Commission, against the Southern Railway and the Washington Southern Railway Company.

The court granted the railways a writ of error in their appeal from the State Corporation Commission's order of October 27, instructing them to proceed at once with the elimination of the grade crossing of Telegraph Road at their own expense. Heretofore the commission interpreted the law to provide that the expense of eliminating grade crossings is to be borne equally by the railway and the county. In this case the county was not ordered to contribute to the expense.

In the petition for a writ, the railways asserted that the commission acted erroneously in refusing to make the Board of Supervisors of Fairfax county a party to the proceedings and erred again in failing to require the County of Fairfax to bear its due proportion of the cost of undercrossing Telegraph Road.

The commission, in an opinion written by Judge Rhea, declared that the condition of this grade crossing is very serious and should be remedied at once. The railways and the county having been unable to agree upon the kind of engineering to be one to eliminate the grade crossing, the commission instructed the roads to proceed at once with the building of a tunnel under the tracks. Whatever claims the railways may have against the County of Fairfax in connection with the expense of this engineering must be settled in the proper courts of the Commonwealth, says the opinion, and not by the commission.

At the point in question seven parallel railway tracks cross the Telegrap Road at grade level. It has been the scene of numerous accidents, and it is regarded as one of the most dangerous crossings in the State. Because of the fact that there are seven tracks there the elimination of the grade crossing, is really an expensive undertaking, and has been productive of much litigation tween the railroads, the county of Fairfax and the State Corporation Commission. Between 200 and 250 freight and passenger trains pass over these tracks daily

Pupils of Expression Give Entertainment—Program of Exceptional Interest

The assembly hall of St. Mary's was last night filled to its capacity by the large representative audience that came to witness the first entertainment given this year by the class of expression under the direction of its teacher, Miss Gertrude Spetzler, of Baltimore. Nor were the expectations of those who witnessed the results of Miss Spetzler's training last year disappointed. Ease and grace that come only from patient, painstaking instruction on the part of the teacher and faithful constant observance of the laws of dramatic art by the student were visible in every movement of the young performers; while the melodius tones and clear enunciation of all gave vidence of exceptional work in voice culture.

There was a variety about the selections, from grave to gay, ridiculous to sublime, that gave an added interest and made the two hours program seem short even to the late comers who were forced to stand during the performance.

The program was as follows:

Mary of Magdala ....Miss Gertrude Spetzler

By special request, Miss Spetzler favored the audience by a masterly rendition of "Mary of Magdala." Clad in a rich evening gown, Miss Spetzler seemed truly the penitent Mary so clearly portrayed in the Gospel narrative. It was the night of Mary's conversion, and she told of the influence of the tender, yet sorrowful Christ of Nazareth whose gentle words, "Come ye unto Me, and I will give Ye rest," had so stirred her soul, one saw the workings of grace in the sinful woman soon to become the hope and model of all future penitents. Then a fear of the scorn and mocking of them she had called her friends comes over her and casting off the memory of the face and words of the Master that have so haunted her, she gives orders for a royal banquet, the like of which has never been seen in Jerusalem, by which she hopes to deaden conscience and forget what she has been. During the preparations the Master passes on the way to the house of Simon, the leper; she sees Him; grace returns and retracting the orders given to her servants, she takes her most prized treasure, the alabaster vase of precious ointment, gift of a Roman general, and goes to Christ's feet, to weep, to tell Him of the strange love that stirs her soul, and to be forgiven. It was a beautiful selection, and Miss Spetzler's interpretation was superb.

At the conclusion of the entertainment, hearty congratulations were offered to the young performers who had so splendidly carried out their respective parts and to the efficient teacher whose successful work with her classes in elocution made last night's beautiful program a possibility.

FIGHT IN OPERA HOUSE

Harvey Struder and Officer Kern Mixed Up When Sergeant Wilkinson Arrives

Considerable excitement was caused at the Opera House last night by a difficulty between Officer Kern and Harvey Struder, during which Struder was struck on the head with a blackjack by Sergeant Wilkinson who came to the rescue of Kern. The doorkeeper of the Opera House had considerable difficulty in preventing a stampede from the building, in which event disastrous consequences would have followed.

The two men were separated and Struder was taken to the station house, but later released for his appearance this morning.

The origin of the difficulty was as follows: Last Saturday a man, whom Officers Roland and Kern said was Struder, was seen to enter Henry Baader's Son's warehouse bearing a bag. The officer later learned that the man they took to be Struder sold a quantity of brass for which he received over four dollars. All dealers in second-hand articles are required to make reports of purchases to the station house by eleven o'clock every morning. When the report was received it stated that the man who disposed of the junk gave his name as Harvey Struder.

Struder, upon hearing of the occurrence, repaired to the station house with a foreman at the Potomac railroad yards who asserted that Struder was innocent and suggested that some man had impersonated him. He mentioned other employees who could testify that Struder worked all day Saturday at the yards. The alibi was further strengthened when Chas Rauch, employed at Baader's appeared and stated that Struder was not the man who sold the brass.

It was thought the matter had been settled, but when Officer Kern and Struder met at the Opera House last night the fight followed.

Struder was brought before the Police Court this morning. Officer Kern in his statement alleged that Struder had struck him, when he grappled with his antagonist. He alleged that the assault was unprovoked.

Sergeant Wilkinson testified that he was in the Opera House and being told a fight was in progress at the door, rushed out to find Struder on top of Kern choking him. He attempted to pull him off, but not succeeding he struck Struder on his head with a blackjack. The latter then submitted to arrest. The sergeant further stated that Struder was disorderly on the way to the station house and that Officer Kern struck him on the shoulder with his blackjack.

After other witnesses had been examined Struder stated that Officer Kern provoked the assault, that the latter was attempting to get some weapon out of his pocket and he was compelled to grapple with him in self-defense. He also said that after he had been placed under arrest Officer Kern struck him on the neck with a blackjack, and he charged Sergeant Wilkinson with applying vile epithets towards him, which the latter denied.

Justice Caton imposed a fine of ten dollars upon Struder for assault. He was represented by Robinson Moncure.

The Torrington Vacuum Sweeper, a Wonderfully Efficient & Labor Saving Cleaner

A broom drives the dirt further into a carpet or rug or any kind of floor covering; the ordinary carpet sweeper does not get it all by any means. Both scatter dust incessantly.

Torrington Vacuum Sweepers get the dust and dirt both by air. They don't make the dust fly, but the suction is so strong and persistent that all the dirt is drawn out, and no dust is made. You don't have to be continually dusting your furniture, pictures, and woodwork.

The ordinary vacuum cleaner has not proven entirely satisfactory in use, so the makers of Torrington machines have incorporated the principles of a carpet sweeper in combination with the vacuum process. The result has been far better cleaning—always. The cost is no greater, much less than money. This machine gets out all the inside dirt and the sweeper collects the threads and loose dirt which lies on the surface.

You sweep and clean with both air and brush at the same time.

The machine is compact, easily operated; a small child can use it. The brush adjustment is simple and the rotation positive. The suction is strong and sure-cleaning.

MINOR DISCUSSES RECALL.

Professor Talks to Philosophical Society on "Some Political Problems."

Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 27.—Professor Raleigh C. Minor, of the Law School of the University of Virginia, addressed the humanistic section of the Philosophical Society Friday night. He spoke on "Some Political Problems."

In the course of his address Professor Minor referred to many of the modern conceptions of constitutional and governmental problems. Among other points he discussed the evils that would attend the adoption of the recall as applied to judges. He stated that the recall of judges was quite different in nature and effect from the recall as applied to administrative officials. In the latter case, the official recalled would be in practically the same position as if he had been elected for a short term and was up for re-election. But with the judges, he said, the matter was quite different, chiefly because the judges are not supposed to, and should not, represent the will or opinion of the people, but they should represent the sober judgment of the people. Therefore, to make the judges subject to the varying elements of public opinion would strike a blow at the very basic principle of the foundation upon which the judiciary rests.

JAILBIRD USED A SHOE PLATE.

Escapes From Culpeper Jail, But Now Rests in the Henrico Jail.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 28.—When James Avis, a negro, charged with making his escape from the Culpeper jail several days ago, was brought into Henrico jail by Detective Angle of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, and Chief of Police Watkins, of Gordonsville, Deputy Sheriff Garnett at once took steps to make sure that there would be no chance of the man escaping from Henrico jail.

The negro was furnished with a complete outfit from head to foot from the jail supply house, which he was compelled to don and his old clothes were taken charge of by the jailor, and will only be given to him when he leaves the jail in regulation style. When searched the negro had carefully stowed away in his clothes $120 in gold and 55 cents in silver. Avis was placed in an extra heavily barred cell which was once used by Eddie Fay, the notorious postoffice yeggman.

It was said that he made his escape from the Culpeper jail by taking a piece of the steel plates in his shoes and by pounding it against a sharp corner of the iron work of the jail made it into an effective iron saw with which he cut his way out through the bars. In the outfit which was supplied him by Mr. Garnett this morning it was made sure that the only pair of shoes it contained were guaranteed free from steel plates.

Avis is charged with robbing the postoffice at Orange, Va. It is said that he has served time in jail at Greenup, Ky. It is also suspected that Avis is the man who shot Chief Watkins sometime ago when the latter attempted to put him under arrest.

Avis, it will be remembered, was charged with stealing a cow in Alexandria county sometime ago.

GIRL ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Beulah Copeland, of Danville, Fires Bullet Into Breast.

Danville, Va., Jan. 28.—Miss Beulah Copeland, who resides on Patton street, made an unsuccessful attempt at self-destruction late Monday afternoon when she fired a bullet at close range from a .32-calibre pistol into her breast. But for the fact that aid reached her a few seconds after the shooting she would have been burnt to a crisp, as her clothes were in a blaze. A note was found on a table, addressed to her mother, reading as follows:

Dear Mother—I am preparing to leave this hard, cruel world. I hope God forgives me. My life is unbearable. Take my body home and bury me at Uncle Nat's place. Give my love to all, and tell them to be good and serve God in all things. Good-by, mother.

"Your daughter,
"Beulah."

The young woman, who is extremely pretty, will recover, as the bullet was turned from its course by striking her breast bone. It is stated that she has, on one other occasion tried to end her life by drinking laudanum.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Lucius N. and William Littauer, brothers, the former at one time a member of Congress, have been indicted by the Federal grand jury in New York charged with smuggling into this country a diamond necklace valued at $40,000. The defendants are prominent glove manfacturers of Gloversville, N. Y.

The initiative, referendum and recall were indorsed by the convention of the United Mine Workers of America yesterday at Indianapolis, Ind. It was also provided in the resolution that the recall be applied to constitutional amendments and that judges shall be prohibited from declaring laws passed by the people unconstitutional.

It is believed in Washington that Thomas Nelson Page, present ambassador to Italy, will be named by the President as ambassador to France. The latter post has been vacant since the beginning of the present administration.

A terrific gale, the worst in ten years, swept St. Petersburg and northwestern Russia yesterday, causing tremendous damage. Hurricane, aided by waters backed up from the Gulf of Finland by the high wind, caused the Neva to rise six and one-half feet within twelve hours. It looked as though the city would be flooded, and the fortress guns were fired to warn persons living in the low lying sections to flee. An 80-mile wind tore roofs from buildings and even blew street cars from the rails. Terrible devastation from the storm was reported from Liberia and Riga. Many persons were hurt by falling buildings.

Frederick W. Vanderbilt's yacht Warrior, which has been on a winter cruise in southern waters, is fast aground off the northwest coast of Columbia, between Savanilla and Santa Maria. Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt and their guests, the Duke and Duchess of Manchester and Lord Falconer were taken off the yacht yesterday by the United Fruit steamer Frutera, and transfered to the steamer Almirante, bound for New York by way of Colon.

A story that laid bare the inside workings of the most desperate band of blackhanders that the police have ever coped with was told by a witness before Judge Rosalsky in the Court of General Sessions in New York yesterday at the trial of a member of the gang. The witness, who confessed to the police after he was arrested, and thought that the gang was not standing by him, confessed on the stand under oath to being implicated in two murders, between 80 and 90 bomb outrages, for 34 of which he gave names and dates; abduction of young girls for white slave purposes, and other crimes of lesser magnitude. The witness was Alfred Lehman, known to his associates as "Schmitty."

Having confessed, it is alleged, that he had attacked and killed Mrs. Wm. Lynch, wife of a well-known Johnson county, New York, farmer, last Saturday night, James Wilson, a negro, was lynched by a mob yesterday afternoon near the scene of his alleged crime

GIRL CAUSES STAMPEDE.

Visits Norfolk Navy Yard With a Pistol Looking for Recreant Sweetheart.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 28.—Miss Gladys Davis, 18 years old, who claims Philadelphia as her home, will answer today before United States Commissioner Percy Stephenson to a charge of going to the navy yard with a gun and causing a general stampede.

Miss Davis went to the yard Monday with a pistol hidden in a small box. She is reported to have had 50 cartridges hidden in her purse. She was after Boatswain Mahoney, of the receiving ship Franklin. She claims Mahoney was her sweetheart and threw her over for another.

Mahoney was not prepared for the reception Miss Davis offered him and when she produced the pistol he ran. Miss Davis was at his heels, however, but she forgot to put any bullets in her pistol and did not take time to stop to load it. Mahoney did not know that and he kept running. Others who saw Miss Davis and her gun also hurried to cover.

Mahoney finally managed to elude Miss Davis and, jumping into a small boat, he pulled for the Franklin.

Miss Davis was arrested by J. J. Creech, a Government detective, and bailed for her appearance in court tomorrow. She says she cannot live without Mahoney.

SUICIDE IN PORTSMOUTH.

Christian S. Larsen Fires Bullet Into His Temple.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 28.—Despite the fact that his younger son took a revolver from him after he had fired one bullet in an effort to commit suicide, Chrisaian S. Larsen, 60 years old, regained possession of the pistol which had been hidden Sunday, and fired a bullet into his temple, dying almost instantly at his home, 443 Muscovite street, South Portsmouth. Despondency on account of continued ill-health caused the tragic act.

Mr. Larsen was for many years in the employ of the United States Navy.

Death of Captain Barbour.

Gordonsville, Va., Jan. 28.—Acute indigestion caused the sudden death Monday of Captain Philip B. Barbour, a prominent lawyer and Confederate veteran, who expired in the dining room of his home here.

Captain Barbour was one of the most prominent citizens of this section of the State. He was a relative of the late Governor James Barbour and a cousin of the late B. Johnson Barbour. His mother was a Miss Somerville, of Culpeper county.

At the outbreak of the war between the States, Captain Barbour enlisted as a member of the Gordonsville Grays, and when disabled by a wound he had risen to the rank of captain.

Jumps Into Canal.

Danville, Va., Jan. 28.—Giving as the reason for her act that she was unhappy and tired of living, Mrs. Thomas Manns, a girl-wife, residing on South Union street, made an attempt to shake off her real or imaginary troubles here Monday morning by plunging into the canal's icy water near the concrete bridge. That she was not successful is due to the fact that two men who were nearby, seeing her make the plunge, pulled her from the stream in a half-drowned condition. She begged her rescuers to let her die. She will recover.

HOME FOR ROANOKE ELKS.

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 28.—Construction of the national home of the Benevolent, Protective Order of Elks at Bedford City, Va., will be begun this week, according to S. J. Householder, representing the construction firm of P. J. Moran Company, of Chicago, who will build the structure.

The "home" is to cost $260,000, and will comprise eight buildings—six dormitories, and administration building and a hospital.

The dormitories are 34 by 97 feet in dimension, and the administrative building is to be 250 feet in length, with several "offsets," or L's. The structure is to be of concrete, frame tile walls, with a white cement exterior.

The style of architecture is German, of the seventeenth century period.

Eight persons are known to have been killed by the flood and storms that have swept the Pacific coast from the Canadian boundry to the Mexican line, and many miles to the east during the last three days.

PROPOSED PARK AT BULL RUN.

As was stated in the Gazette a few days ago, an army board has reported favorably upon the proposal to construct a national park on the Bull Run battlefield, where two of the fiercest encounters of the civil war took place. The announcement was read with interest by many, not only in Virginia and the Southern country, but throughout the union.

In referring to the movement the Manassas Democrat says:

"It is good news that an army board has reported favorably upon the proposal to make Bull Run battlefield a national park. It is to be hoped that Congress will see its way clear to act in accordance with the recommendation. The field of Bull Run has a twofold interest. It was the scene of the first pitched battle of the war, and a year later it saw one of the hardest fought and, from the student's point of view, one of the most interesting battles of the civil contest.

"Some one has said, of the first Bull Run, that it was the best planned and the poorest fought battle in which the Federal forces participated. The opposite might almost be said of the second battle which was the concluding chapter of Pope's unhappy summer campaign in Virginia. It was fought without plans and without system, but it was desperately fought. The vicious charges of the Federal brigades against Stonewall Jackson's men in the railroad cut and the stubborn defense against Longstreet's enveloping lines in the woods about the Henry house are among the finest achievements of the war.

"The union forces had far more reason to run from the second Manassas than they did from the first. But they did not run and thereby they saved the grandiloquent general, who had come out from the west to show eastern armies how victories were won, from even greater humiliation than was his portion.

"Whatever may be said of war in itself, its teachings are all for patriotism. The cost of preserving such battlefields at Bull Run, is infinitesimal in comparison to the inspiration to be drawn from them. The visitor to the place where the history of the country has been made should be able to visualize the scenes which have been enacted there and this he cannot do if the physical aspect has been altered out of all likeness to its original plan. We have Gettysburg and Chickamauga; now let us have Bull Run—and then the others."

COLLECTORS OF INCOME TAX.

Senators Said to Have Approved List That Includes T. R. A. Burke.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 28.—It is learned here from a thoroughly reliable source that the list of men to be appointed to collect the income tax in Virginia has been made up so far as the senators are concerned. Although not yet given the written approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, they will probably go through without a hitch, except in possibly one instance.

The list is as follows: Chief agent, Daniel C. Porter, of Staunton, at $9 a day. The others, who will be deputy agents, collectors, and clerks, are T. R. A. Burke, of Richmond; J. R. Weaver, Roanoke; J. J. Burke, Mathews county; Charles H. Johnston, Norfolk; Thomas A. Williams, Falls Church.

This list was submitted to Commissioner of Internal Revenue Osborne some days ago and after several conferences with Acting Secretary of the Treasury John Skelton Williams, is supposed to have been practically agreed upon.

It is known, however, that Secretary McAdoo is insisting that Mr. Glass must name one appointee, and the opportunity has been offered him. Mr. Glass first recommended Warren Lee, of Charlottesville, brother of "Jack" Lee, of Lynchburg, but he was withdrawn by request of "Jack" Lee, and no further recommendation he names his man it is probable he has been made by Mr. Glass. When will be substituted for one of the men recommended by the Senators.

ELECTRIC LINE IN PALESTINE.

Jerusalem, Palestine, Jan. 28.—A concession for the construction of a street car line running from Jerusalem to Bethelhem and also for the lighting of Jerusalem by electricity was granted yesterday by the Turkish Government.

The concession went to the French bank which recently supplied Turkey with the money to purchase the Brazilian dreadnought Rio Janeiro.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Ten Years for Criminal Assault.

Bristol, Va.-Tenn., Jan. 28.—Thomas Doyle, of Bristol, marred and 40 years old, was convicted yesterday in the Circuit Court, at Blountville, Tenn., of criminal assault on Maxie De Frees, a 15-year-old crippled girl of Bristol. He was sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary.

Homesickness impelled Mary Lucas, 33 years old, employed as an operator of a short waist factory in Williamsburg, New York, to make three desperate leaps for death. Before quitting time Monday she went to the roof of the six-story building and jumped. She fell 30 feet to the roof of a fire engine house. Miss Lucas jumped from the fire house roof, a distance of 10 feet. She was unable to get up and rolled to the edge and fell 15 feet more to the engine house yard. At the hospital it was found that her legs and arms were broken. The physicians say she cannot live.

Pope Pius personally initiated a revival of the old Venetian dance, furiana, after the Cardinal Vicar had banned the Argentine dance, says the Paris Le Temps. The Pope summoned a young couple belonging to a princely Roman family before him, and bade them do the tango. Afterward the Pope said: "It is one of the dullest things imaginable. If a sinner were compelled to dance the tango as a pennance, he would be treated harshly." Forthwith the Pope decided to annul the Papal ban on conditions that the name of the dance be changed. "People of your age must dance," he said; "but why adopt such ridiculous, barbarous contortions." Thereupon he called in two Venetian domestics, ordered them to dance the furlana, which is like the Brazillian maxixe, and praised its gracefulness.

The many good reports I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills led me to get a box at Leadbeater and Son's drug store. They fixed me up in fine shape. Board of Aldermen.

At a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Alexandria, Va., held January 27, 1914, there were present:

F. F. Marbury, Esq., president, and Messrs. Hill, Brill, Ogden, Baillenger Fiels, Fitzgerald and Summers.

A communication from Thomas A. Fisher, Mayor, returning without his approval resolutions providing for an expenditure of $100 for the construction of a sewer at King street and the Alexandria county line, and appropriating $250 to defray the expenses of Urban S. Lambert, in his appeal from the Corporation Court to the Court of Appeals for retention of his seat in the Common Council from the First Ward received from the Common Council January 12, 1914, and laid over, came up.

The question, "Shall the resolution become operative notwithstanding the Mayor's objections??" was decided in the negative by the following vote: Ayes, Messrs. Ogden, Ballenger, and Field—3. Noes, Messrs. Hill, Brill, Fitzgerald, Summers and Mr. President—5.

A report of the Fire Committee recommending the purchase by said committee of 1,000 feet of hose for the department was referred to the Committee on Fire and Finance.

A petition of the Alexandria Laundry for the erection of an arc light at Queen and Fayette streets, was referred to the Committee on Light.

A petition of the Mutual Ice Company asking Council to donate cobble stones and curbing for certain improvements at the foot of Cameron street, was referred to the Committee on Streets.

A report of the Committee on Streets recommending the passage of a resolution appropriating $600 for the erection of a tool house, etc., on the city's lot at the jail, was laid on the table.

An ordinance to prohibit the establishing or operating of a garage within 300 feet of any church in the city of Alexandria, was received from the Common Council and laid on the table.

The President appointed Mr. Fiel on the part of the Aldermen to appear before a legislative committee in Richmond to urge that the city be given jurisdiction over the property part of which is in Alexandria county at Cameron and West streets recently acquired for public school purposes.

A resolution was received from the Common Council providing for an expenditure of $3,500 for the purchase of the Black Lot in the square at Cameron and West streets upon which it is proposed to erect a high school building. The resolution was laid over until January 31, 1914.

An ordinance compelling owners of vehicles to place tags and numbers upon the same, was received from the Common Council, that board having offered the ordinance to the Committee on Streets. The Aldermen non-concurred in the action and returned it to the Committee on General Laws.

The following were received from the Common Council and their action concurred in:

Report of the Committee on Light on a petition for placing a gas light at Montgomery and Alfred streets.

The Committee on Light reported in favor of a gas lamp at the corner of Alfred and Montgomery streets and the report was adopted.

The Committee on Light reported in favor of a gas lamp in front of St. Paul's Church, providing that it is burned every night and the janitor of the church lights and extinguishes same, and the report was adopted.

In reply to a communication from the Mayor and a letter from Francis L. Smith, attorney, relating to the pollution of the waters at Hooff's Run, the Committee on General Laws reported that the sewerage complained of comes from the Union Station, Rosemont and other suburbs, and not from the City of Alexandria, and recommends that no action be taken by the City Council, and the report was adopted.

A resolution authorizing the committee on Light to enter into a contract for the term of three years with Mr. C. C. Bailey for the purchase of ammonia from the City Gas Works upon an agreed price of $550 per annum, was passed.

The following resolution offered by Mr. Smith was adopted:

An ordinance to prohibit any person, firm or corporation from establishing, maintaining or operating any garage for the purpose of selling, hiring, manufacturing, or repairing any automobile, motorcycle or motorcycle or any vehicle of a like kind within three hundred feet of any church or place of public worship, was recommended by the Committee on General Laws and read the second and third times and passed. Ayes, Messrs. Burke, Leadbeater, Lambert, Smith, Graham, Monroe, Brockett, Harrison, Low and Mr. President, (10.) Noes, Messrs. Spinks, Williams, Marshall and Chauncey, (4).

A communication from H. Noel Garner, Secretary of Washington's Birthday Association, requesting an appropriation of $200 to assist in defraying the expenses of the celebration on February 23rd, 1914, and that the City Hall be decorated on the occasion, was referred to the Committee on Finance.

A resolution by Mr. Chauncey that all wagons, buggies, carriages, and other vehicles drawn by horses in the streets of the city shall have tags and numbers placed on the side of each vehicle, the numbers and tags to be furnished by the city auditor, upon the payment of $1.00, was referred to the Committee on Streets. The resolution was returned from the Board of Aldermen non-concurred in, that Board having referred the matter to the committee on General Laws. Council receded from its previous action and concurred in the action of the Board of Aldermen.

The President appointed Mr. J. Y. Williams to act with a member from the Board of Aldermen to appear before the General Assembly in accordance with a resolution adopted at the last meeting relating to the lot purchased for high school purposes within the boundary of Alexandria county.

A petition from the Mutual Ice Company,requesting donation of cobble stones and old curbing that may be necessary in paving a roadway at their pier, foot of Cameron street.

Also a petition for an arc light at Queen and Fayette streets.

Also a recommendation from the Chief of the Fire Department and a request from the Fire Committee to purchase one thousand feet of hose.

The Board then adjourned.

Edgar Simpson, 27 years old, son of Hugh Simpson, a farmer, near Hillsburg, Ontario, shot and killed his father and mother yesterday, and after barricading himself in a house and defying for a time a posse of neighbors who surrounded the dwelling, turned his rifle on himself, the bullet piercing his heart. He died instantly. Young Simpson had been ill for some time and it was supposed his mind had become affected.

While his wife was paying the collector the premium on his life insurance policy yesterday afternoon, the police say, Wm. J. Young, aged 43, a navy yard employe living at 1245 K street, southeast, Washington, went up stairs at their home and shot himself in the right temple. Young had not been able to work for some time on account of ill health, and the family was in needy circumstances. He was put in a Casualty Hospital ambulance, but died on his way to the institution.

Overland Model 79

You Think They Are Different—But Are They?

Too many people are fooled or misled by taking bare automobile prices as a positive indication of the intrinsic value of a car. This is exactly the wrong way to go about. Because one article is priced higher than another it does not follow that this article has a greater value.

As a matter of fact there are any number of $1,200 cars which are not, in value, the equal of the $950 Overland.

For instance:

The $950 Overland has a wheel base of 114 inches.

The wheel base of the average $1,200 car is no longer than this—often shorter. So in this respect you get more for $950 than you do for $1,200.

The $950 Overland has a powerful 35 horse-power motor.

No $1,200 car has a larger motor than this. Here is equal value,and in most cases, more value for less money.

The $950 Overland tires are 33 inches x 4 inches—all around.

No $1,200 car has larger tires—Again—equal value—our price $250 less.

The $950 Overland has a complete set of electric lights--throughout—the same as on most $1,200 cars. Some out of date cars still cling to the obsolete gas lamps. In the first instance the $950 electrically lighted Overland is the equal value of the $1,200 car, and in the second instance has more value than the $1,200 (gas lamp) car. In either case our price is $250 less.

Next comes the matter of equipment. The $950 Overland is complete—a jeweled speedometer, top, curtains, boot, windshield, electric horn—everything complete. No $1,200 car has more complete or better equipment.

And so on, throughout the car. Point for point--specification for specification, the $950 Overland is, in every essential respect, the equal of any $1,200 car on the market.

So we warn you. Ignor the prices. Compare the actual facts first. Then compare the facts with the prices and you get the intrinsic value.

There will be 50,000 Overland cars made this year—the largest production of its kind in the world. And every Overland purchaser will save at least 30 per cent, and get a superior car.

MORE TALKS ON TEETH BY DR. LEON

THE YEAR 1914 SHOULD HAVE BETTER TEETH FOR YOU

Why Our Teeth Should Be Better Than Our Parents' Teeth

FIFTY YEARS ago people didn't know much about the care of teeth. That is why so many now say: "If I had only taken care of my teeth when I was young my digestion and my whole health would be better now."

Nature must have calculated that two sets would last us a lifetime, but putting them to so many uses that Nature did not anticipate has made it necessary to add care to the bargain to make them last that long.

Dental skill will overcome every excuse for bad, unsightly, unhealthy teeth, except neglect—and make care so easy that there can certainly be no excuse for neglect.

Good sense, good judgment, and good taste will display themselves unmistakably in the condition of the teeth, because nothing but care will procure and preserve good teeth and nothing but neglect be responsible for not possessing them. Take care of your teeth. You'll certainly need them.

An important part of your duty to your teeth lies in having them examined regularly, so that you may be sure of their condition and able to attack decay as soon as it attacks a tooth. The process of decay is very deliberate—but very certain. If unchecked it will cost you the tooth's life of usefulness. The sooner a cavity is filled with a reliable metallic filling the less will be the expense and trouble.

Filling teeth properly is saving teeth permanently. Therefore the preservation of your teeth is eminently important. Often a decaying tooth is neglected until it is too late, simply from dread of the pain of the dental chair. My methods of dental treatment are painless—they eliminate all dread of the dental chair.

Painless dentistry is neither a myth nor miracle. It is accomplished simply by superior skill in the use of instruments, care in manipulation, and the application of a successful anaesthetic to the gums, that deadens the nerve temporarily and leaves no bad effects whatever. Besides the attractiveness in banishing the torture of old-time methods, successful painless treatment argues the most modern skill and advanced methods for the operator.

Science and skill have had to develop the dentist's art, which is the only expedient that makes it belong to us to ridicule our less advanced brothers.

DON'T EXPERIMENT!

WHICH DO YOU PREFER: My advanced, painless methods of restoring your teeth to health and soundness, or some inexperienced dentist to practice upon you? My nineteen (19) years' experience in dentistry—treating successfully thousands of cases that other dentists have failed through lack of experience to remedy—enables me to offer you a class of work that hasn't an equal in this city. TO DOUBLY ASSURE YOU OF THE HIGH QUALITY OF MY WORK, I BACK IT BY A TWENTY YEARS' GUARANTEE TO BE ABSOLUTELY SATISFACTORY IN EVERY RESPECT.

DON'T RUN RISKS!

When you come to me, you come to a dentist with an established reputation in Washington, a dentist who concentrates all his efforts in one office, and where he is always to be found. If you want any one to experiment on your teeth, you will find plenty of dentists at your service. But, if you consider the health of your teeth of real importance and want to be sure of satisfactory dental work and painless dental methods, I am at your service. I have absolutely eradicated pain from dental work, partly through superior methods of work, partly through improved appliances, but largely through skill and careful, sympathetic practice. I treat your teeth by methods approved and indorsed by every reliable dentist and doctor in the world. I am an expert in gas administration and in every other phase of up-to-date dentistry work there is. I stand ready to prove this statement.
